WOMEN WIN A FRIEND.

Rev. A. S. Embree Now Believes in Woman Suffrage.

HIS CONVERSION HAS BEEN SLOW

He Says, But He Now Believes Their Independence in Politics Will Be a Good Thing for the Country.

Rev. A. S. Embree, D. D., pastor of the First M. E. church, says the political resolutions passed by preachers do not amount to anything.

To a STATE JOURNAL reporter he said: "These organizations of preachers and church societies have no authority to bind their members by their action in a political way and the Methodist preachers of Kansas will vote this year as they always have voted. Most of them will vote the Republican ticket, and a small per cent will vote with the party prohibitionists."

"The political contest in Kansas this year is between Populists and Republicans, and I for one propose to vote where I can do the most towards the overthrow of the present corrupt state administration. The present administration is the result not so much of Republicanism as it is of the Humphreys and Bill Higginson and that class of politicians bringing their party into disrepute."

"The present administration is a disgrace to the state, and it should be, and I believe it will be, overthrown. My views and information have not been gathered by traveling over the state, but the people I have met and talked with agree that the Populists are a disappointment. Many of these people voted for Lowell before. These Populist reformers came to us as church people; we were told that they were true reformers, and that Lowell was a prohibitionist, but these people who voted for the Populists two years ago, in good faith, have had their eyes opened. Instead of electing reformers to office, they now see that Lowell and his crowd are more corrupt than their Republican predecessors."

"The Populists have ruined the financial interests of the state and we can't expect to see any prosperity until we have a change of administration and unless we have financial prosperity we can not have prosperity in any line; we can't expect the churches to prosper if the country does not prosper."

"If Kansas ever loses prohibition, as she is sure to eventually unless woman suffrage carries, the people who will be responsible for it will be the party prohibitionists themselves. They are the people who have refused to affiliate with the only party which has given us all our prohibitory legislation, and by putting a ticket in the field year after year, when there has been no hope for electing it, have drawn votes away from the party which has been the friend to the cause they are supposed to represent."

"If we lose prohibition I propose to take plainly to that crowd, and from this time forward I propose to let them know that I for one will hold them responsible for the downfall of prohibitory sentiment in this state."

"I am not satisfied with all the candidates on the Republican ticket, but they represent a better cause than the present Populist crowd who want to be re-elected, and we are assured that they will enforce the law, which is more than this Populist crowd has done. If they don't enforce the law it will be time enough then to turn them down.

"The political conditions in this country can not be reformed until we have an independent set of voters in politics, which is something we haven't now."

"How are we to get that independent factor in politics?" queried the reporter.

"We will get that with woman suffrage."

"Won't the women vote as their husbands do?"

"No sir; they will not. Take your own wife for instance. You go home some evening and she asks you if you are going to vote for such and such a candidate. You say you are and she promptly informs you that she will never vote for him. Now why? She has heard some truths about that candidate's private life. You will vote for him because he is on your ticket and belongs to your party. She does not care anything about any party and will never vote for any man whose record is unsavory."

"Now is that about the way it would be at your house?"

The reporter admitted that it was about the way things would turn, to which Dr. Embree said: "What is true at your house is true at my house and at my neighbors."

"It is true that there are a few women who will vote as their husbands do and as their husbands direct, but the great number of women, the women who have influence in the community, will come nearer voting as their preachers do than as their husbands do."

"I have been a slow convert to woman suffrage and have been a little discouraged at times about the prospects of women bettering politics, but I must confess that I have been converted and I intend to vote for suffrage because I believe the women will be a wholesome factor in politics."

Political Notes.

About 600 people attended the Republican meeting at Highland yesterday, and the Topeka people who were there say it was a good meeting.

Secretary Bristow of the Republican state central committee, has not yet succeeded in sidetracking Major McKinley, and he will speak in Topeka October 3.

The La Cross Clarion says: It seems he governor is purely an "all round man." Last Sunday he played cards and chess in Dodge City, last night he attended a Russian dance here in Big Timber township, and next Sunday he will preach in Scott City church.

POLICE COURT NOTES.

Lewis Jackson and F. Cole were arrested by Officer Steele yesterday, and are being held by the police. The first charge placed against them was that of "suspect," but it has been changed to vagrancy. They are the same men that were arrested here two months ago for confounding a man on the Wyandotte train, and have since been out of the city. They had in their possession a pocket full of dice when they were arrested, and were evidently in town to fish for the sucker who plays the games at the races. They will be tried on the latter charge tomorrow.

The class in languages was up in police court again this morning and Sol Zaden and Thomas Shaden had an opportunity to tell how Abraham Green came to "lam the daylight" out of them with his club. The explanation wasn't satisfactory to the court and the judge fined Sol and Thomas $5 each, which they paid amid tears and lamentations.

A Correction.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Edith Higbee and Mr. Ed Miller, of Chicago, formerly of this city, on the 26th.

The JOURNAL desires to correct the above announcement published in the issue of last evening, as the information is incorrect, being due to the efforts of some one desiring to perpetrate a very stupid joke.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

The highest award was given on every claim, comprising superiority in leavening power, keeping properties, purity and excellence. This verdict has been given by the best jury ever assembled for such a purpose, backed by the recommendation of the Chief Chemist of the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., who made an elaborate examination and test of all the baking powders. This is pre-eminently the highest authority on such matters in America.

This verdict conclusively settles the question and proves that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is superior in every way to any other brand.

Note.—The Chief Chemist rejected the Alum baking powders, stating to the World's Fair jury that he considered them unwholesome.
